

The image features two bronze statues of cherubs, likely Cupids, playing trumpets. The cherub on the left is shown in profile, blowing into a trumpet. The cherub on the right is also in profile, facing right, and is playing a trumpet. Both figures are depicted with curly hair and are wearing simple, draped garments. They are positioned in front of a large, textured column. The background is a lush, green, out-of-focus foliage.

KAMELOT AUCTIONS

PHILADELPHIA

ARCHITECTURAL ANTIQUES
&
VICTORIANA AUCTION

NOVEMBER 22ND, 2008